DULLES AND STASSEN CONFERRING AT BONN

URGE EUROPE TO EXPEDITE DEFENSE PLAN

Bonn, Germany (AP) — U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today called upon continental Europe to put away its "old dangerous rivalries" and join quickly in armed union to "provide the indispensable cornerstone of a strong Atlantic community."

The secretary of Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen flew here from London, where they reportedly left behind a warning to British leaders that concrete progress must be made within 75 days toward creating a European defense army including German troops or America may reduce its aid program.

After a brief preliminary meeting with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, they swung into a series of conferences with German and Allied leaders which will virtually fill their 21-hour stay here.

Dulles read a brief formal statement to the press after his first chat with Adenauer. He praised the 77-year-old chancellor as "one of the great postwar statesmen who has the vision to move forward and realize the possibilities of the future."

Dulles said he and Stassen were making this fact-finding tour of the six-nations, which have signed the treaty to create a European defense army because "we believe these countries stand on the threshold of a great evolutionary (Turn to Page Eight)

Former Trolley Co. Supt. Passes Away

Gustave Adolph Probst, resident of Clarendon Heights for many years, died last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. V. Halpin, at Lancaster, where he and his wife had been visiting since last November.

Born in Warren on November 19, 1872, he grew up in the family of the late David Ridselberger and had been a lifelong resident of this section. His earlier years were devoted to the oil business in this area. Later, he became general superintendent of the Warren Street Railway Company, retiring, upon its dissolution, after 30 years of service. He was a member of Grace Methodist church and well known throughout the area as a lay preacher and church worker.

Besides his wife, Anna, he leaves two children, Mrs. Marie Halpin of Lancaster and Arthur R. Probst, Clarendon Heights; also four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Lena Ginn, Atlanta, Ga.; and one half-brother, William Ulrich, Warren.

Services in his memory will be held at 3:00 p. m. Saturday at the Peterson Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. C. W. Baldwin and followed by interment in Oakland cemetery. Friends will be received at the funeral home after 7:00 p. m. Friday.

Large Number of Pennsylvania Lawyers Aspiring To Be Named Federal Judges

Washington (AP) — Pretty soon it will be "standing room only" for Pennsylvania lawyers who are aspiring to become federal judges.

Aides to Sens. Martin and Duff, Pennsylvania Republicans, said scores of persons have been recommended and that new names are being added to the bulging list almost daily.

Eisenhower Move to Put the Nation Back on Free-Market Economy Enters New Phase

Washington (AP) — The CIO today called for an immediate end of government wage controls amid reports that President Eisenhower will issue an executive order, probably before the end of the week decontrolling wages and some prices.

CIO President Walter P. Reuther wrote Eisenhower today saying that the Wage Stabilization Board has "virtually ceased to function" and said pay curbs should be dropped immediately.

Government stabilization officials disclosed that they were informed at a conference with Mobilizer Arthur S. Flemming Monday that Eisenhower planned a decontrol order before the end of the week.

Meanwhile, the White House declined again today to say when an order will be issued ending wage controls.

Eisenhower's latest step, taken yesterday, was to knock out the Defense Production Administration mainstay of the Truman administration's industrial controls program. The agency's functions were turned over to the Office of Defense Mobilization under Fleming.

Dismissal notices went out the day before to all 2,000 or so employees of the federal boards which have controlled wages and salaries.

Soon and probably tomorrow, a price official said, an order now in preparation will decontrol prices of meat and a lot of other consumer items, such as canned fish and canned meat, furniture and small electrical ware.

Within two weeks, the official said, a follow-up order will call for controls on such major appliances as stoves, refrigerators and washing machines.

Price Administrator Joseph Freehill acknowledged that a decontrol order, including meat, will be touched on in a statement this week.

The decontrol order expected tomorrow would just about end price ceilings on wearing apparel. It would lift the lid on children's and infants' clothing at retail.

Shoes and men's and women's clothing already are out from under controls.

Meat decontrol would be across the board, from stockyard to butcher, and would include veal, the only meat not now selling well below ceiling prices.

Lamb, mutton and pork prices are controlled now only at retail. The chief effect of meat decontrol would be to free dealers from much record-keeping as well as from requirements to cut and grade meats according to government specifications. Little change in prices was expected since retail meat prices are generally well below ceilings.

AUTHOR DIES SUDDENLY

Brookline, Mass. (AP) — Ben Ames Williams, 63, author of more than 400 short stories and about 40 books, died of a heart attack on the County Club Rink last night while participating in the old Scottish game of curling. He was stricken and fell to the ice just as he had shot his last stone toward the mark. He died before medical aid could be summoned.

STATE SCHOOL OFFICIAL DIES IN AUTO CRASH

Lancaster (AP) — A two-car collision on the Pennsylvania Turnpike late yesterday took the lives of two men, one of them 58-year-old Dr. Frederick L. Pond, consultant for the State Department of Public Instruction.

State police identified the second victim as Ernest A. Stocker, 45, a passenger in Dr. Pond's car. Stocker was a resident of Parker, Armstrong county. He was principal secondary education adviser in the department.

The crash occurred when a car driven by Robert Lessing, 31, of Philadelphia, ran off the highway bounced off an embankment and swerved across the pike into the east-bound lane to strike Dr. Pond's car head-on, state police added.

The scene of the crash was a lonely stretch of highway between Hopland and Brickerville in Lancaster county. State police said Pond and Stocker were headed for Philadelphia.

A lifelong resident of Meadville, Dr. Pond was principal of the public high school from 1923 to 1940. Prior to 1923 he headed the chemistry department for several years.

A veteran of both World Wars, Pond fought overseas in the first war, rising from the ranks to become a commissioned officer. For 35 years he was a member of Pennsylvania's National Guard, attaining the rank of full colonel.

In World War II, Pond served with the Army Service Command in the U. S. and for a time was director of the Bellefonte, Pa., organized reserve corps area for the Second Army.

Since October, 1947, Pond was curriculum consultant for the State Department of Public Instruction. He drew up an entirely new secondary education technique for Pennsylvania's public schools.

During his National Guard career he was commanding officer of the 112th Infantry Regiment for a time.

Surviving are his widow in Meadville and two sons, Dr. Joseph Pond and John Pond, both of Butler.

Communist Ship On Korean West Coast Attacked by Allies

Seoul (AP) — Allied warplanes attacked a 5,000 ton Communist ship at Chinnampo on the Korean West Coast today and blasted Red supply routes and frontline positions, the U. S. Fifth Air Force reported.

An F80 Shooting Star jet pilot reported he scored two direct bomb hits on the Red vessel, ice-bound in the harbor, Chinnampo, the port for the North Korean capital, Pyongyang.

Allied pilots scored regularly against small Communist boats and junks off both Korean coasts. The 6,000-ton, single-stack vessel was described by the Air Force as the biggest target.

Deadly U. S. Eighth Army reported only light patrol activity, along the frozen, 155-mile battlefield.

In Tokyo, Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. Far East Commander, announced that Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor will take over command of the U. S. Eighth Army next Wednesday.

Taylor is touring South Korea with Gen. James A. Van Fleet, retiring U. N. field commander.

RED CHINA'S THREAT FALLS ON DEAF EARS

Tokyo (AP) — Red China Wednesday warned the U. S. to accept Communist terms for peace in Korea or face a fight to the finish along the bleak battlefield.

In a direct challenge to U. S. President Eisenhower's new administration, Red Premier Chou En-lai demanded unconditional resumption of truce talks at Panmunjom, an immediate cease-fire and an 11-power political conference to settle the thorny question of war prisoners.

American officials immediately rejected the broadcast threat as "old stuff." They said it was the same proposal advanced by Russia in the U. N. last December and voted down, 40-5.

These are the conditions laid down by Red China's No. 2 leader in a broadcast over Peiping radio:

1. "If the U. S. has the will and desire for peace in Korea she should unconditionally resume talks at Panmunjom."

2. Red China and North Korea "are ready for an immediate cease-fire on the basis of agreement already reached at Panmunjom."

3. "Thereafter we are prepared to discuss the question of prisoners of war at an 11-power political conference."

Allied negotiators, fed up with 15 months of fruitless wrangling, walked out of the Panmunjom talks Oct. 8. They said they would return only if the Communists agreed to one of several U. N. proposals or came up with something new.

The Communists want back all of the 122,658 POWs held by the U. N. The Allies have agreed to send back only the 83,000 willing to return.

Publicist Hannagan Heart Attack Victim

Nairobi, Kenya (AP) — Steve Hannagan, the press agent who put the bathing beauty on America's front pages, died of a heart attack in a hotel here today. He had arrived in the Kenyan capital on Tuesday.

The publicist came here on a business trip for the Coca-Cola Company, one of his industrial clients.

Born in Lafayette, Ind., 53 years ago, Hannagan at an early age became one of America's most colorful and famous publicity experts—the popularizer of Miami Beach, Sun Valley and the Indianapolis Speedway.

Hannagan's first marriage, in 1931 to Ruth Ellery, ended in divorce. In 1939 he was married to model Suzanne Brewster, but they also were divorced, in 1943.

In recent years, he had been the frequent companion of movie actress Ann Sheridan.

MANY NEW MEMBERS

At last night's monthly business meeting of the Hemlock Community Club, 16 new members were received into the organization and a number of plans for the coming months were discussed. After the group had been reminded of the social evening on February 18, with a tureen supper at six o'clock, refreshments were served by Mrs. Clyde Schweitzer.

NOW HE WAITS FOR MARCH 15—In Washington, T. Coleman Andrews, right, is congratulated by Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey after being sworn in as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. In the center is Judge Albert V. Bryan of the U. S. District Court of Virginia, who administered the oath.

Wide Search Is On For Coed Missing Since Last Friday

Lewisburg (AP) — A wide-spread search was broadened today for an 18-year-old Bucknell University coed, seven days after her disappearance during a week end trip away from the campus.

Police of 13 states were asked to look for the coed, Miss Jacqueline Jane Mengoni, of Trenton, N. J., when Bucknell authorities and city police reported "absolutely no word" about her whereabouts.

She left the university last Friday and was due back Monday.

The girl's father, Joseph L. Mengoni, a bank executive, said at Trenton he suspected foul play. Bucknell officials said at first they believed the father was unduly alarmed about his daughter but conceded "the time lapse is beginning to strain that belief" when no word was heard from her.

Police Chief Gordon Hufnagle said there are indications Miss Mengoni, a freshman liberal arts student at the school of 2,000 students in Central Pennsylvania, left the campus with a boy friend.

School officials identified the youth as Michael O'Connell, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. O'Connell, Bethesda, Md., near Washington.

The O'Connell youth, police said, arrived at Lewisburg Thursday with the family car. Neither has been seen since.

Miss Mengoni left a note in her room Friday morning addressed to a room mate reading: "Dear Janice, Mike called at 7 a. m. He wanted to leave for Washington right away. I didn't think I should wake you up so early. See you Sunday night, Love, Jackie."

CONFIRMATION NEAR

Washington (AP) — Unanimous committee endorsements of Gen. Walter Bedell Smith and James Bryant Conant for top diplomatic posts foreshadowed their confirmation by big votes when the full Senate considers them, possibly tomorrow. All 15 members of the foreign relations committee voted late yesterday in favor of Smith as under secretary of state, the No. 2 man in the department, and Conant as high commissioner for Germany.

President Accused by British Of Egging Chiang Kai-Shek on To Attack Red China Mainland

London (AP) — Herbert Morrison, foreign secretary in the old Labor government, today accused President Eisenhower of egging on Chiang Kai-shek to attack the China mainland. He said there is a real risk of trouble of involving forces of the United States, and declared Britain could not help in that event.

Replying in a House of Commons debate, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden said Britain is satisfied the United States had no "aggressive intentions" when it, in effect, freed Chiang's Formosa forces for action against the mainland.

Eden cautioned against "reading into the President's statement on withdrawal of the Seventh Fleet anything more than it actually said." He quoted Eisenhower's words—"This order implies no aggressive intention on our part"—and said Britain is satisfied "that clearly states the American position."

Eden stressed that he had talked only a few hours earlier with U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Deputy Labor Party Leader Herbert Morrison opened a major House of Commons debate by expressing apprehension that the sudden switch in American policy taking the wraps off the Chinese Nationalists might lead to "considerable consequences."

In advance, the Laborite Daily Herald accused Churchill today of withholding from his own Foreign Office for three weeks the news that President Eisenhower planned to quit using the U. S. Seventh Fleet to shield the China mainland from possible attacks by Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists on Formosa.

Longshoremen Join Waterfront Tieup In New York City

New York (AP) — The city's waterfront was tightly sealed today when AFL longshoremen threw their weight behind striking tugboat crewmen.

Even if the big ships of the trans-Atlantic trade could manage to dock without the aid of tugs, they could not be loaded or unloaded while longshoremen stayed off the job.

AFL tugboat crewmen, striking for higher wages, set up one and two-man pickets along the waterfront. But even one picket was enough to stop hundreds of longshoremen from working.

When bosses of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association blew their shrill whistles for the 8 a. m. shape-up, the workers who tote bales and crates on and off ships refused to move. The tugboat crewmen and longshoremen both belong to the ILA.

Longshoremen went to work on only one Manhattan pier. This, it was learned, apparently was an oversight by the tugboat men who neglected to place a picket there.

The Brooklyn waterfront was reported closed tight. Every pier on Staten Island—except Army piers—was shut.

ALL-MALE JURY WILL TRY MARGARINE HEIR

New York (AP) — An all-male jury and two male alternates have been selected for the vice trial of Mimi (Mickey) Jelke, margarine heir accused of forcing three young women into high-price prostitution and living off the earnings of one.

After completion of selection of the jury and alternates yesterday—one bachelor and the rest married men—General Session Judge Francis L. Valente put the start of the trial over until 10 a. m. tomorrow.

The recess, Valente said, was to enable the jurors to put their affairs in order for a trial expected to last a month.

TOTAL DEATHS FROM FLOODS REACH 1,880

Amsterdam, The Netherlands (AP) — The death toll in Holland's disastrous flood reached 1,320 today. This brought the total in the low countries and Britain to 1,880.

The Dutch figure fell short, however, of the approximately 2,000 deaths which reliable but unconfirmed reports said the surging flood waters have caused since the start of the weekend storms.

And the end was not in sight. Four new breaks in the dike system of Schouwen Duiveland Island, in South-west Holland, posted a new peril for thousands of homeless flood victims stranded there.

Dutch parachute troops were ordered dropped into the surrounded dry parts of the flood area to help in rescue efforts and to direct parachute drops of relief supplies.

The Dutch Ministry of War offered an extra guilder a day (about 30 cents) and a pack of cigarettes to each of the 4,000 to 5,000 American soldiers who have been sent in to help in the rescue work. By Gen. Manton S. Eddy, commander of U. S. Army Forces in Europe, asked that the money and cigarettes be turned over to the national relief fund.

Although Britain herself is suffering under heavy flood damage in the southeast, British troops and helicopters have been sent to help stricken Holland. Queen Juliana of the Netherlands sent thanks to Britain's Queen Elizabeth II.

Fifteen hundred villagers fled Oud and Nieuge Tonge on the island of Goeree-Overflakkee who spent five horror-filled nights on a crumbling dike were removed to small boats this morning and during the night.

Maj. Vernon Poynter of Wichita, Kan., chief of American helicopter rescue operations, said flights over the dike this morning showed a had been evacuated.

Holland's royal consort, Princess Bernhard, flew over Nieuwe and Olde Tonge in an American helicopter to survey the situation.

Poynter said that up till now the 16 helicopter pilots under his command have rescued 700 persons and now are hunting more survivors.

Federal Tax Agents Facing Prosecution

Washington (AP) — Federal tax agents said today Carroll E. Mealey failed to report $40,897 in income during the five years he headed the Alcohol Tax Division of the International Revenue Bureau.

Testifying before a House Ways and Means Subcommittee investigating revenue practices, the agents related locating $92,004.25 in income during the 1946-51 period when Mealey's income return totalled $51,196.99.

The agents, Martin L. Webb of St. Louis and Charles H. Malmebury of Philadelphia, resumed their witness stand as House tax fraud investigators probed deeper into Mealey's financial affairs and one-time top tax official.

Mealey resigned, giving reasons of ill health, in the fall of 1951.

Actress June Haver Turns Her Back On Movie Glamor To Enter a Convent

Hollywood (AP) — Actress June Haver turned her back on movie-land's tinsel brilliance today to become a nun.

The 26-year-old blond dancing star, whose salary rose to $3,500 a week but whose career also brought her personal tragedy, ended months of rumors about her intentions by issuing a poignant statement last night.

Without disclosing her whereabouts, nor where and when she will enter a convent, Miss Haver telephoned the statement to her studio and asked that it be distributed publicly.

Retailers Expect But Little Change in Their Prices With Trend More Toward Decrease

What will price decontrol do to the cost of living? Merchants believe that most of the things you buy in their stores will move only slightly either way. Most pressure right now is toward price cutting rather than price boosting.

Businessmen, however, may find a long list of materials they buy are likely to rise—mostly in the metal fields, but including probably oil, some machinery, office machines, and such specialized things as surgical instruments.

Such price rises in materials would increase the costs of making consumer goods and—if consumer demand is high enough—this cost could be passed along to you later as higher prices on many durable goods.

At present, however, the tendency is to cut prices on such things as cars—and not pass on higher costs.

The timetable of decontrol worries businessmen most right now. In the period of uncertainty some sellers may withdraw from the markets. Those who expect their products to rise in price once they get free of controls may slow down their current sales. If this happens there will probably be cries of shortages.

Both consumers and businessmen noted President Eisenhower's price predictions — "some up, some down."

They expect the first decontrol measures very shortly will free those products likely to be down. These include consumer items now selling well below price ceilings—like meat, some clothing and textiles still under controls, and some consumer durable goods.

These also include such raw materials as natural rubber, lead and zinc.

Past products likely to be freed from controls are those bouncing against the price ceilings. These include copper, steel, aluminum, petroleum, and some machinery. And such consumer items as cigarettes, washing machines and office equipment.

But while these wait out their turn in the dying days of controls, there will be a lot of jockeying among producers and manufacturers.

The cost of living—after a few more weeks—is going to be set in the marketplace once more. That is, it will depend upon the supply of goods available and the urge you have to buy any particular item—plus that important factor, the number of dollars you have in your pocket.

For most consumer goods the supply seems ample, and in some cases more than ample.

And businessmen contend that even for those raw materials now in short supply a return to a free market will insure a better supply in time.

The change-over period from controls, though, may be a little rough.

LICENSES REVOKED

In the week ending January 16, the Bureau of Highway Safety withdrew the cards of 1,029 drivers. Of this number 79 were revoked and 950 were suspended.

RELIEF DEMAND DOWN

Running counter to normal seasonal expectations, Pennsylvania's public assistance rolls reversed the upward movement of the past two months and turned downward during the first half of January with a decline of 177 persons.

JOBLESS PAYMENTS

The State Bureau of Employment Security reported today approximately 106,300 checks totaling $2,566,000 in regular benefits were issued to eligible unemployed workers in the week ending January 16. For the same week a total of $42,705 was paid in veterans benefits by 1,690 checks.

RELIEF INVESTIGATION

Mrs. Eleanor G. Evans, Secretary of Public Assistance, announced that arrangements had been completed with Attorney General Robert E. Woodside for the assignment of State Police to assist in investigating and prosecuting desertion and non-support cases in Philadelphia County. For some months the Department of Public Assistance, in cooperation with the Department of Justice, has been studying the operation of the Support Law in six counties. Locating the deserting father or the chief difficulties in enforcement, and the use of trained and experienced police investigators should materially help in this work. The State Police will work closely in cooperation with departmental investigators now in Philadelphia.

DIOCESAN PAPER UPPEL

In a letter from the Most Rev. John Mark Gannon, read in all churches of the Catholic diocese of Erie Sunday, it was stated that the subscription rate of the official diocesan paper The Lake Shore Visitor-Register, will be raised to $3 a year. The subscription rate from the time of the paper's reorganization August 19, 1938 has been 52 cents a year. The present debt of the Lake Shore Visitor-Register is $35,000. The Bishop in his letter stated that a subsidy of $25,000 was awarded the paper from the Bishop Gannon Jubilee Fund. In addition there were many other subsidies. The total subsidy of the Diocese of Erie to the paper—a weekly—has amounted to $66,087.15. "In the past few years, the costs of printing and publishing the paper have increased in a shocking way," the Bishop stated.

Prices Decline To New Low for Year According to Index

New York (AP)—Wholesale food prices declined this week to a new 1953 low, according to the Dun & Bradstreet food index.

The index, in fact, has been lower in only one week since the Korean War began.

At $6.13 it compared with $6.22 last week, was off 7.3 per cent from the year-ago week's $6.61—and compared with the previous post-Korean low of $6.11 on Dec. 16, 1952. The high since the start of the Korean War was $7.31 in the week of Feb. 20, 1951.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Higher this week were flour, sugar and lamb.

Lower were wheat, corn, rye, oats, beef, hams, lard, butter, milk, cocoa, eggs, potatoes, raisins, currants, prunes, steers and hogs.

More than 60,000,000 acres of land in the United States are in need of reforestation.

Member Lutheran Church - Chosen As Laymen's Chairman

Ivan S. Brumagin, 109 East Fifth avenue, Warren, was re-elected chairman of the Warren Area it was announced today by Paul I. Folkemer, president of the Lutheran Laymen's Movement for Stewardship of the United Lutheran Church in America.

Mr. Brumagin is one of 1,400 members of the Movement supporting the stewardship program of the ULCA, largest of the Lutheran church bodies in the U. S. and Canada. The aim of the Laymen's Movement is to inspire the members of the church to "practice their religion" and to raise the level of giving for the world-wide program of the ULCA. The work of these key laymen has been one of the major factors in the increase of giving from $27,000,000 to $57,000,000 for all purposes of the church in less than ten years.

According to Mr. Folkemer, Mr. Brumagin will serve as a consultant in Christian stewardship for both pastors and laymen and also lead the men of his area in increasing membership in the Laymen's Movement. Most of the members are giving from $100 to $1,000 a year to support the stewardship program. The ULCA's stewardship department is the only stewardship department in any church supported outside the regular budget. Its media of promotion are Hollywood-produced motion pictures, colorful printed materials, field work, and workshops.

Kiwanians Enjoy Talk By Owner of Fox Farm

The large number in attendance at the weekly luncheon-meeting of the Warren Kiwanis club Wednesday noon at the YWCA enjoyed an entertaining and informative talk by Gerry Archibald, of the Fox Farm, who traced the history of the fox raising industry and described in detail its relations to the fur trade.

Gus Carlson, president, was in charge, and singing was led by Dr. John Urbatis. Announcement was made of the resignation of Dr. Robert Steen as a member of the board of directors of the club with a statement that Ralph Sires had been nominated to fill the vacancy, which will be filled by election at the meeting next week. Harold Baker, a past president, was welcomed after being absent from meetings because of business reasons, and A. Newton McCausland was greeted on his first attendance since a recent illness.

The speaker was introduced by Howard Lauffenberger, a member of the February program committee. Ed Lowrey spoke briefly on his trip to Washington to attend the inauguration of President Eisenhower.

NEED FOR GROUND OBSERVERS

A dramatic program on television recently showed light of three B-29's simulating Russian bombers sping from England for a run over New York, s an editorial in The Publishers' Auxiliary. Nar- ed by Edward R. Murrow and his staff, it dem- trated the detection devices and methods which designed to alert the prime targets and prevent acks.

There was radar, there were jets and there were hly organized nerve centers into which observers' rmation was fed.

The bombers were first observed, while flying eath the radar net, by a volunteer in a small vn. The volunteer's data was flashed to a plotting iter.

But the bombers flew over a high hill where an- ier observer's shack was empty; they were in ht of another post, also unoccupied . . . and they re lost for vital periods of time.

Eventually another observer picked them up, ey were intercepted and—had they been carrying mb—might not have made their targets.

Interceptors would have had greater opportunity id the intruders being under constant observation. ut, as Mr. Murrow pointed out, two-thirds of the servation posts are unmanned. As a nation, we re two-thirds blind in our defense.

Here is a job for small town America and for ie grassroots press.

MOTORISTS' CITY

In Los Angeles, where superlatives have to e added in every year for new models, the boom goes n. They're forecasting now that the city and its st metropolitan area may catch the second-rank- ig Chicago area by 1960.

If Detroit is the motor city, Los Angeles is the motorists' city. The per capita use of automobiles ere is unrivaled in America. In many sectors a ar is the only means of getting around. It is a com- munity built specifically for the automobile.

An enterprising fellow, or group appears to have ken particular note of this. The evidence is a sed car emporium stretching over nearly 15 acres, ith 400 big floodlights to make the nighttime cus- omers sure of their bargains. The place has a 250-foot sign, wider than the top of Hoover dam.

The cars which populate this "city of cars" will robably never be so easily parked again.

RELIEF FOR PUBLISHERS

Titusville Herald

We haven't given much thought to Rep. Bower's ill, which would put a one-cent-a-copy tax on every ewspaper in the state, except to try to figure out ow much it would cost The Herald. That's why we aven't given it much thought.

Last year this tax would have bitten The Herald or the sum of $20,709.18. We don't think Rep. ower's brainstorm will get much attention from his olleagues. But if perchance it should become law, ouldn't worry us a bit. We'd just stop publish- ing a newspaper. Then we would be relieved of a hole hatful of worries.

Officers of the Sports Boosters Club and the ard-working and efficient committee in charge of ast evening's annual lettermen's testimonial ban- uet at the Marconi Outing Club are receiving well- served compliments on the success of the affair hich proved a red-letter event in the long and ctive history of this progressive and civic-minded rganization. The program in its entirety was in eeping with past efforts of the club, and the en- ertaining and philosophical talk by the well known nd popular "Rosey" Rowsell, Pittsburgh radio adcaster, was one of the best that has been eard here in many months, appropriately adapted or the mixed crowd of men and boys in attendance.

The type of weather this section has enjoyed the ast couple days makes one wonder if those resi- ents vacationing in Florida may not be just a lit- nvous of those compelled by various reasons to stick round the old home town during the winter months.

Cheer up, folks! It won't be long after March 15 ntil it will be hot enough so you won't miss the shirt ou lost on that date.

"Stupids, Don't You Know Utopia When You See It?"

Here And There

We are indebted to A. G. Pierce, a shut-in, who resides at 709 Lexington avenue, this city, for the following reminder about an important industrial project of 46 years ago:

Dear Sir:—I was going to write to you in January but it slipped my mind so will make it at this late date.

It was in 1907, January 12, that the first bunch of men started from Warren to Tampico, Mexico, with Mr. Peter Horning in charge of the Hammond Iron Works crew. They were in Mexico over a year and a half erecting a large refinery for the Waters Pierce Oil Co. Of the 15 men who went at that time, only three or four are still living, including A. G. Pierce, 709 Lexington avenue, who is the only one living in Warren. All of them were from this city but two and they were from Clarendon. So you see Old Man Time has taken his toll in 46 years.

I would be pleased to have you come around and see me since I have been laid up with a broken leg for over a year and would be glad to chat with you. Sincerely, A. G. Pierce.

Terse, Tart and Timely: Birth- day greetings to Dr. D. A. Smith, born in 1868; Ethel Baldensperger, tax collector; our own Circulation Manager Howard L. Clark; and Virginia Kopf, in Washington, who came up to Warren last November to cast a vote for Eisenhower. A special program of more than usual interest is scheduled for the ABC Network at 9:30 o'clock this evening when former President Harry S. Truman will broadcast a speech at a Truman Day dinner given by his home town of Independence, Mo. . . . A well authen- ticated story says that arrange- ments have been completed for the drilling of a deep test well in the Triumph district, which would penetrate the Medina sand, a project originally suggested some years ago by one of the best known oil men of the area who has since passed to the Great Beyond. . . . Pillow radios have been installed at the Oil City hospital for the patients' pleasure at a rental of ten cents an hour, the monthly bulletin of the Oil City Nurses Alumnae Association an- nounces. . . . A total of 25 con- tractors have made requests for plans and specifications for the construction of the proposed Jun- ior-Senior High School of the Cor- ry Area School Authority, bids for which will be opened at eight o- clock p. m., March 10th. . . . The sales promotion of Warren Retail- ers held on the second Wednesday and Thursday of each month, usu- ally sponsored by 24 stores, falls next week, February 11-12; and those interested are reminded that copy for their two-column six-inch advertisement must be in The Times-Mirror office this weekend.

Looks like the powers that be will have to give some thought soon to the parking situation in the vicinity of Warren, General Hospital, created with the opening of the new wings, where the prob- lem has already become so com- plex that motorists are beginning to cause considerable damage to private and public property in their eagerness to park cars in the im- mediate vicinity of the institution.

★ EDSON IN WASHINGTON ★ GOP Chairman Wes Roberts Has Met Ike Only Five Times

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—One of the most unusual facts about new Republican National Committee Chairman Wes Roberts is that he has met President Dwight Eisenhower only five times, face to face, though both are from Kansas.

The first time was at Abilene, when Eisenhower came back from Europe. Next was at Denver, where Ike made his headquarters. Then at the Chicago convention, and once again, briefly, at Washington, when the presidential candidate came through during the campaign.

In December Mr. Roberts went to New York for a meeting with the President-elect. It was at this meeting that Eisenhower gave his blessing to the election of Roberts as national chairman.

There is one other most unusual fact about Mr. Roberts. In an administration that is now characterized as eight millionaires and a plumber, Wes Roberts is one of the least wealthy men, and chairman of political parties are traditionally big-money men.

He will get a handsome $32,500 annual salary plus expenses as GOP national chairman. But this will be the most money he ever made. And his modest assets are said to mark and to prove another of his greatest attributes. He is called that rapity among rarities—a completely honest politician.

BUT he is a politician. It's in his blood. He was born Dec. 14, 1908, at Oskaloosa, Kans.—the state from which political hell has always come. He was the youngest son of a country newspaper editor.

He took journalism when he went to Kansas State. A dollar was hard to come by in those days, and he made a fex on the side writing for his dad's string of three weekly papers. After he left college, he became editor of one of them for a 10-year period.

Then he got into politics. His father had never been a Kansas regu- lar, and Wes became identified as one of the young Turks. He backed Carl Friend against Gov. Al Schoepel, now U. S. senator from Kansas, and lost. In 1936 he was campaign manager for Will G. West in the gubernatorial race, and again he lost.

For the next two years Wes Roberts served as executive secretary of the Kansas Republican Committee. In that time he built up the organization that hasn't suffered a defeat since.

He went on to become assistant state chairman and secretary to Gov. Payne Ratner for two terms.

In 1943, Wes Roberts was commissioned a captain in the Marines' Intelligence. He rose to become a major in the Fourth Marine Air Wing bomber squadron which saw action in the Pacific.

Discharged in 1946, he came back to Kansas—and politics. He did publicity for the state highway commission, and from 1947 to 1950 was state chairman. He managed Sen. Frank Carlson's success- ful campaign that year.

THE great mystery of the Wes Roberts career—if it is a mystery—is how a politician with only Kansas acquaintance could zoom to national prominence in a year.

The answer to his success is that he applies grass-roots, precinct-level, Kansas politics to every campaign. The delegates to the Chi- cago convention were mere voters to him. He learned who they all were, who they were for and where they could be reached.

Wes Roberts was married in 1929 to Ruth Patrick, a high school classmate in Oskaloosa. They have one son, Patrick, 16, a junior in high school at Holton, Kans., where the family has lived since the war. The family will eventually make a home in Washington and then, maybe, it will be possible to get Wes Roberts away from that tele- phone and out of that hotel room.

PROMPT AND EXPERT SERVICE

UNFOUNDED RUMOR

One of the stories, that for some unexplained reason sweep through an area like wildfire, this one to the effect that a county man died as the result of mutilation with a knife, is entirely without foundation. Investigation by law officers and the Times-Mirror have revealed that there is no truth in any phase of the tall tales that have been sweeping through Warren and surrounding area for the past several days. Both men to whom the stories are attributed, are, so far as is known today, alive and entirely well.

GUN CARRIER HELD

An elderly Erie county man, who visited the Warren State Hospital yesterday, was taken into custody by Joseph Gardner and state police when it was discovered that he was carrying a pistol in a shoulder holster, and had in his pockets extra cartridges as well as two hunting knives. He told officers a lurid tale of being in danger of his life from Erie underworld characters, and was placed in county jail to await examination to determine if he should be committed to the hospital himself. His wife is already a patient in the institution. He is being examined today.

20th Century Innkeeper-Painter

Don Wharton, Spring Creek, whose painting won "popular vote" award from those attending last year's Art Talent Recognition Contest sponsored by the Warren Woman's Club, has continued to turn out many portraits and landscapes in the past months. That portrait, "Retrospect", is among the pictures that line the walls of Deer Head Inn, of which, Mr. Wharton is proprietor.

It is character and expression shown by the eyes and mouth that Mr. Wharton looks for in his subjects. He says he can find more subjects than time in which to paint them; and sometimes has as many as a half-dozen portraits in some stage of work.

Some of his subjects literally wander into the Inn, which is located on Route 27 west of Pittsfield. One painting is of an old man Wharton charitably describes as a "fellow who was in unfortunate circumstances". In the painting, the old man looks surprisingly confident and optimistic, considering the only money he has is the bill he holds in his hand—the money Wharton gave him for posing.

Since many people do not have time to sit for portraits, Don sometimes takes a series of candid snapshots and relies on them for help in forming the composite which shows the character of his subject. For final work on a portrait, he likes to paint from life. He does most of his work in a small room adjoining the dining room and, if he has an audience, is usually too absorbed in his painting to notice.

Last summer, Wharton studied art with Joseph Plavcan, well known Erie artist and art teacher, who was one of the judges of Warren county's first Talent Recognition Show. Landscapes rather than portrait work came from this instruction and one of his most recent pieces is of the Brokenstraw at Garland.

Don came to Warren county from Pittsburgh in 1937. He studied in evening art courses at Carnegie Tech and, after service in the armed forces in World War II, returned to Warren county and again began to paint.

He feels that exhibits such as the Woman's Club Show encourage those who have had some training in art to keep up their interest and seek further instruction; and that such shows guide those who have never painted to a satisfying means of expression. While he is modest about his work and would probably protest the comparison, Don is not the first painter to keep an inn. Jan Stene, famous 17th century Dutch master, was an innkeeper and it was said of him that he enjoyed this work, since it gave him opportunity of watching people and adding to his store of types.

This year's Woman's Club Show will be on May 14, 15 and 16 and is the goal toward which many amateur painters are working through the winter months.

GIRL SCOUTS HAVE VISIT TO FIRE HALL

Russell—Following the regular meeting of Girl Scout Troop 43, held in the church basement, the members and their leader, Mrs. Ernest Beckwith, enjoyed a trip to the fire hall. Richard Miller talked to the girls on "Home Safety" and showed them the fire truck and resuscitator.

During the meeting at the church, Audrey Rath was welcomed as a new member of the troop. All girls in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades are invited and urged to join in the troop activities.

Golden Wedding Day

The Misses Elizabeth and Catherine Reed, Mrs. Florence Stevens, and Bennett R. Reed, of Erie, entertained at the Reed family home Tuesday evening to mark the 50th wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Reed, 208 Crescent Park. Refreshments were served from a table beautifully appointed with yellow mums and golden tapers. Mrs. Bennett Reed, serving the anniversary cake and the grandchildren, Marcia and Robert Stevens, as aides. The honored ones were remembered with many beautiful flowers, cards and other gifts appropriate to the occasion. Pearl Hickman and Isaac A. Reed were united in marriage by the Rev. Delamater, Grace Methodist church minister, on February 3, 1903, and have lived in Warren all of their married life.

WSCS MEETING

Russell—Fourteen members were in attendance for the regular meeting of the WSCS, held in the Methodist church. Mrs. Paul Wood presided and Mrs. Claud Pangborn, in charge of the devotional period, gave the scripture and a talk on "Thinking of Others."

Members voted to use money received from their quilting for a missionary fund. Mrs. J. L. Buck, chairman of youth work, reported 11 young people will attend the mid-winter institute this weekend. Mrs. Richard Enos was appointed to buy articles for a layette for a Methodist hospital and the group voted $10 to the March of Dimes.

For the program, Mrs. Charles Pearson gave the study lesson, "Sowing Seeds of Kindness," and told of the ways in which the Methodists have helped here and in other countries. To conclude, tea was served by Mrs. Ed Barrett, Mrs. John Van Orsdale and Mrs. E. F. Baxter.

Pleasant PTA Has Remembrances for Its Past Presidents

The 1953 Founders' Day meeting of Pleasant PTA resembled Old Home Week, with past presidents of the organization honored and former pupils participating.

Presentation of past presidents' pins was made by Miss Helen Yaegle, active member of the first Pleasant PTA in 1936 and secretary to the Pleasant school board for many years. Those honored were Mrs. Susie Beebe, Mrs. Alice Kitefinger, Mrs. Marjorie Lindsey, Herbert Wentz, Mrs. Fay Gigliotti and Mrs. Jeannette Fredericks.

Miss Yaegle was presented with a red camellia corsage by the program chairman, Mrs. Evelyn Gansberg, in appreciation for her years of service to the township.

The following program numbers were then presented by former pupils of the school: Piano solo, Beverly Lindsey; song, Sylvia Woodruff; guitar and piano duet, Joan Wertz and Preston Briggs; song, Beverly Rapp; baton twirling, Connie Valone, Nancy Grasser and Virginia Wilcox; accordion solo, Joan Tremblay; song, Connie Valone, Nancy Grasser, Virginia Wilcox; accordion solo, Joan Tremblay; song, Connie Valone, Nancy Grasser, Virginia Wilcox and Beverly Lindsey.

Mrs. Philip Hohman, president of the County PTA Council, gave a brief message on Founders' Day and urged a good attendance at the next Council meeting, February 12, at the National Forge clubhouse.

During the social hour in charge of the four teachers of the building, Mrs. Beebe and Mrs. Kitefinger poured, while Mrs. Rex Confer, current president, cut the special Founders' Day cake.

EAGLES' AUXILIARY

President Jessie Badie was in charge of the regular meeting of the Eagles' Auxiliary, reminding her members of the tureen dinner to be held next Tuesday evening, February 10, with husbands or escorts as guests. The Auxiliary will provide the meat, coffee and cream. Birthdays of January and February will be honored, Valentines will be brought for "secret sisters", and those who did not remember "sisters' birthdays will do so at this time. The traveling prize for this week's meeting went to Clara Sikstrom, the attendance prize to Helen McCool.

PRE-SCHOOL CLUB

The February meeting of the Pre-school Child Development Club was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Decker. Following a short business session, Miss Jane Masters, kindergarten teacher at Lacy school, addressed the group on "Preparing Your Child For Kindergarten", and answered many questions during the discussion period which followed. Concluding refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. Decker, Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mrs. Charles Sheldon and Mrs. William Rieder.

LEAGUE BENEFIT

St. Paul's Luther Leaguers are having a benefit bake sale Saturday morning at the Metzger-Wright store, second floor, the proceeds to be used for sending youth of the parish to the 15th international youth conference in Boston next June. Members of the parish are urged to donate articles for the sale and those wishing collections made are asked to call 975-R before nine o'clock Saturday morning.

MARGERY RITCHIE PLANS OPEN CHURCH

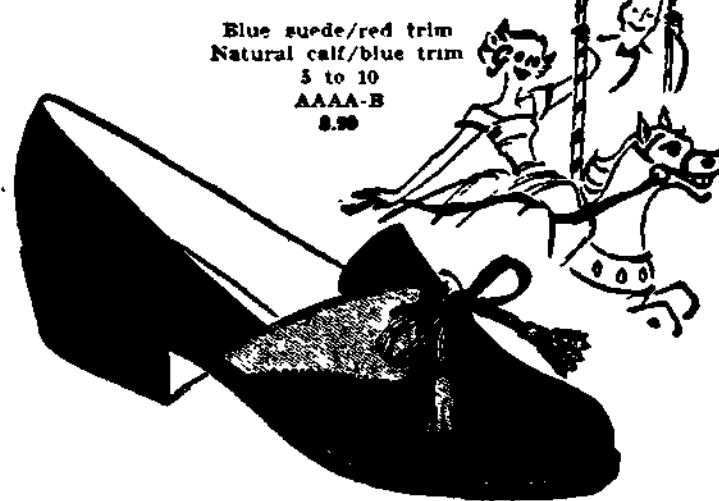

Miss Margery Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ritchie, Russell, will observe open church Saturday, February 7, for her marriage to Pvt. Francis Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyell B. Carr, 10 West Third avenue, Warren.

The ceremony will be solemnized at three in the afternoon in Trinity Memorial Episcopal church.

Church at Barnes Is Scene of Pretty Mid-Winter Rites

Barnes — The Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding Sunday evening, February 1, when Carol Anna Haines, daughter of Mrs. Violet Luce of Sargent, became the bride of Ray Martin Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wolfe, of this place. The Rev. Grant Mottern performed the double ring ceremony.

Vases of white glads and snapdragons, with candelabra, were placed at either side of the pulpit and the altar rail was entwined with mountain laurel. Jane Nelson, Clarendon, played traditional airs and accompanied Merle Anderson of Sheffield, who sang "Always" and, during the service, "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Garland Dean, the bride was attired in white satin, with long tapering sleeves and train. Her veil of lace and net fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearls and her rhinestone necklace was the bridegroom's gift. Her bouquet was of white snapdragons and carnations surrounding an orchid, and she carried a small white Bible.

John Pittcock was best man for honor, wore beige taffeta, with headpiece and mitts of aqua, and carried a bouquet of carnations in the same shade. The bridesmaids,

Anna Sagerich of Sargent and Mrs. John Grubbs of Barnes, wore pink and blue net over taffeta and carried matching carnations. The flower girl, Mary Dawn Pittcock, was in pink nylon, with matching headpiece and white gloves, and carried pink carnations. Judy Haines, as trainbearer, wore white satin and a pink carnation corsage. Victor Luce, the ringbearer, was attired in a blue suit.

John Jittcock was best man for Mr. Wolfe and ushers were Harold Bittenbender, of Helen Furnace, and Myles Stitzinger, of Tionesta.

Both mothers wore navy, accented with corsages of red rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for about 40 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pittcock.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride chose a black frock with silver bolero. Upon their return, they will reside at Clarendon RD 1. Mr. Wolfe was graduated from Sheffield High in 1950 and his bride attended Kane High. He is employed at the National Forge following two years service with the National Guard Unit.

Parties for the bride-elect were given by Mrs. Theodore Menteer and Mrs. Garland Dean, Sargent; Mrs. John Pittcock, Mrs. John Grubbs, Mrs. Harrison Wolfe and Mrs. Leona Donaldson, Barnes.

Founders' Day At Starbrick Meeting

Girl Scouts of Troop 8 presented a delightful Founders' Day program for last night's meeting of Starbrick PTA. In the cast were Joyce Black, Anna Mary Ustach, Kay Dunham, Nancy Sidon, Linda Olson, Kay Sidon, Suzanne Smith, Dianne Swanson, Jean Schuler and Bonnie Chapel, assisted by their leaders, Mrs. Ralph Olson and Mrs. Albert Sidon.

Mrs. Gail Geer gave a brief history of the local unit and a "cake walk" collection was taken for PTA extension-work.

During the business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Theron Esterbrook, announcement was made that curtain material has been purchased and the committee is ready to start its sewing.

An appeal was made for leaders and committee workers for the Girl Scouts. Anyone willing to give of her time for this worthwhile cause is asked to come to the neighborhood meeting to be

MID-WINTER PICNIC

The regular monthly meeting of the Allen Class of First Methodist church will be held next Tuesday evening in the form of a mid-winter picnic. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock in Founders Hall and members are asked to bring tureen, their own bread and butter and table service, the committee furnish meat, dessert and coffee. For the program to follow the picnic supper, Margaret Wright will present a book review.

FREWSBURG BRIDGE

Bridge players of the area are reminded of the weekly game of the Frewsburg Duplicate Bridge Club, to be played at 8:00 p. m. Friday in the IOOF hall at that place; also of the Valentine party and Master Point tourney scheduled by the club on February 13. This is in addition to the regular Master Point game of February 20, it is stated by the sponsors.

In last week's five-table game, a Howell movement was used and top score of 48 went to Mrs. Sigurd Johnson and George Straight; second, with 42½, were Al Roth and Mrs. Vida Benson; third, Mrs. Anabel Duff and R. H. Larsen, with 41; fourth, Mrs. Myer Kornreich and Mrs. Marshall Johnson, 39; fifth, Mr. and Mrs. David Cropp, with 37, which was average for the evening.

The first dog show of record was held in England, on June 28, 1859.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mrs. Warren Koppenhofer has returned to her home in Uniondale, Long Island, after spending the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Bean, Weldbank. Drake submitted the treasurer's and auditor's reports for the Chest year ended Sept. 15, 1952, which were approved. Mr. Drake, who also is the Chest's campaign director, discussed some of the needs of the last drive held in which was successful. The Chest then called on Vice President Chester Allen, who has helped manage affairs of the Chest many years, and whose campaign strategy is greatly responsible for the continued success of the Chest's campaigns. As usual, he gave some well chosen remarks to the present.

Immediately following the annual meeting, the board of directors held their organization meeting with all present officers ready to serve for another year. President, T. K. Creal II, first vice president, Holger N. Just, second vice president, Robert S. Allen, treasurer, N. D. Patterson, secretary, Wm. E. Yeager, and executive secretary, W. Drake.

Brother of County Woman Hurt in Crash

Russell—Mrs. Paul Lindell, Russell-Lander road, has received word that her brother, Floyd J. Eckman, of Detroit, Mich., was seriously injured in an automobile accident in that city last Saturday.

While details of the happening were not learned here, his condition is said to be satisfactory despite a compound fracture of the upper leg bone, several broken ribs and a fractured knee cap. X-rays have not revealed any internal injuries, according to his wife.

Mrs. Eckman is the former Gladys Honhart of Starbuck and the couple lived there for many years before going to Detroit in 1945. Both were active in Dinsmore-Schwung VFW Post and Auxiliary and have many friends in the vicinity.

Friends who would like to remember the injured man with a card or note may do so by writing him at Mt. Carmel Hospital, 8971 West Outer Drive, Detroit, 21, Mich.

JUDGE ASSIGNED

Judge Allison D. Wade has been assigned by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to Philadelphia county for a week, where he will aid in cleaning up the dockets in that municipality. Judge Wade's work in the Quaker City will begin on Monday, February 9.

EVENING GROSBEAKS

The first report this winter of the appearance of Evening Grosbeaks comes from Mrs. R. A. Newhall, 19 Park street, North Warren, who states that these welcome visitors that usually appear in this section at this season of the year, have been noted in trees in her yard the past few days.

LIVESTOCK MEETING

Announcement has been made of a general livestock meeting to be held at the Court House on Friday evening at eight o'clock, when Tom King, specialist from State College, will discuss sheep and beef cattle problems. Mr. King will also be one of the afternoon speakers at the Farmers' Institute to be held in Warren Grange Hall on Friday.

SCHOOLS FRUSTRATED

School Directors and officials from ten Venango County school districts Tuesday night in Franklin heard an address by Dr. J. K. Bowman, director of the bureau of consolidation and transportation of the Department of Public Instruction, on the advantages of school district jointure. When the two and one-half hour session was over, however, many directors, including those of Franklin, felt frustrated because of the problems posed by jointure. For instance, Franklin's high school is now overcrowded with tuition pupils from other districts and next year the situation might be worse. However, if some of the smaller districts go through with tentative jointure plans, these tuition pupils may no longer use the Franklin facilities. Any steps which Franklin board takes to relieve the present overcrowding will be useless in the event of other jointures, because there is more than sufficient school space for Franklin high school students alone.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Carolyn Eddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Eddy, 410 Market street, has been discharged from Warren General Hospital but will be obliged to wear a cast for the next eight weeks because of an injury received in high school gym class. X-rays taken at the hospital disclosed she had cracked a vertebra when she twisted her back in a fall but the attending physician has given permission for her return tomorrow to classes at the high school where she is a senior. In the meantime, her injury will prevent participation in the Civic Orchestra and the coming District Orchestra Festival at Erie and other activities will be curtailed.

HEARTS AND MURMURS

The dread of "murmurs" is one of the most exaggerated fears associated with the heart. Thousands of people give up useful activities and subject themselves to lives of semi-invalidism because they believe they have a heart murmur. Heart murmurs are the noises made by the blood flowing through the heart.

Some murmurs are harmless and frequently occur in perfectly healthy hearts. Others are indicative of heart disease, but they must be considered as only one element in the clinical and laboratory evaluation of a patient. Anyone believing he has a murmur should consult a competent physician so that his fears can be settled by thorough examination.

Should heart disease be discovered, he will profit by having it brought to proper medical attention as early as possible so that treatment can be prescribed. By so doing, many patients can lead active, normal lives. Bringing information on the heart and heart diseases to the public is a part of the program of your Heart Association, which depends upon support of the Heart Association, which depends upon support of the Heart Fund to carry out its important work.

Sugar Grove Area Man New Conservation Aide

James Locey, well known farmer and teacher in the Sugar Grove area, reported for work as a conservation aide with the Soil Conservation Service. Conservation is not new to Jim as he has installed many of the practices on his own farm. He has also helped many of the veteran agriculture trainees with the application of conservation practices on their farms. He was one of the first group to talk to the commissioners about organizing a district in Warren county.

With Locey on the job to assist the farmers in the application of practices throughout the county, officials hope to be able to help many more farmers in their requests for help on conservation work.

Barnes Home Economics Group to Meet Feb. 12

Barnes—Mrs. Mary Ayers, assistant home economics extension representative, will be in charge of the second meeting of the local group when it convenes Thursday, February 12, in the church basement. The women have planned to make handbags and all ladies of the community are cordially invited.

The Omega Class of the Barnes Sunday School held its monthly business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Lloyd, with all members present. Extensive repairs have recently been made to the furnace and basement of the church and a donation of $10 was given to this project. They also decided to join the ladies of the Adult Bible Class in sponsoring a soup supper and sale within the next few weeks, the earnings to be used for this fund.

The Adult Bible class meets today at the home of Mrs. Harry Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Amsler, Clarendon Heights, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rudolph Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hover left Tuesday morning for a motor trip to Kermit, Texas, where they will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hahn. They expect to be gone several months and plan to visit the coastal states before returning home, perhaps in June.

Nancy Miller, senior at Allegheny College in Meadville, has returned to her studies after spending her semester vacation visiting her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ruth T. Miller and Mrs. D. R. Titus. Harriet Titus, who teaches in Bradford, and Nelle Titus of Corry, were also home over the weekend.

Janet Hulings, employed at Warren State Hospital, has returned to her work after spending a week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hulings.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, of Barnes, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Duck, Kane, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mayer in Sheffield Monday and enjoyed the telecast of President Eisenhower's address.

Mrs. Herbert Samuelson, Jamestown, N. Y., and Mrs. Rhoda Crocker, Warren, were guests at the home of Ira Whitton and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Whitton Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Millard Smedley, formerly of Saybrook, is making her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Allen.

We are very glad to report a marked improvement in the condition of Mrs. Ed Rudolph who has been seriously ill. Mrs. Will Lindberg, Sheffield, has been caring for her during the past week. Visiting Mrs. Rudolph Saturday and Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Berlin, North Warren; Mrs. Bertha Berlin, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Conklin and daughters, Rose and Ruth, Warren.

Frank Rudolph attended the district quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church in Youngsville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loveland, Corry, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Conquer Sunday.

Mrs. Gertrude Hunter, Warren, spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Whitton and family.

Adverse Weather Is Costly to Vegetable Growers in Penn'a

Harrisburg—How seriously the adverse weather of last season hit the pocketbooks of Pennsylvania growers came to light today when the State Department of Agriculture announced a year-end Federal-State summary on truck crop production for 1952.

Although the 1952 acreage used for growing vegetables for both fresh marketing and for processing, estimated at 107,000 acres, was two per cent larger than in 1951, both production was 12 per cent below that of the year before, the survey revealed.

Cool and wet weather during the early spring months, along with exceptionally dry weather during the summer and early fall, resulted in sharply reduced yields compared with 1951, the Department said.

Smaller yields per acre for all vegetables except cabbage, cucumbers, lettuce and lima beans, for processing more than offset the increased acreage, it was said. For the processing crops, tomatoes averaged only 9.3 tons per acre compared with 9.2 tons in 1951 and yields of green peas, sweet corn and snap beans were considerably lower.

The value of 1952 production of the 12 leading truck crops for fresh market and the nine crops for canning and freezing totaled $23,458,000 or a five per cent increase over 1951, the survey disclosed. Commercial production of fresh market vegetables included in the survey totaled 171,000 tons valued at $13,822,000. The nine processing crops totaled 226,400 tons valued at $9,633,000.

Costume Party Is Enjoyed by Sugar Grove Girl Scouts

Sugar Grove—The Girl Scouts had a costume party at their regular meeting, dressing as "great American citizens", the theme of their present troop studies. Among the guests represented were Mrs. Washington, Betsy Ross, Florence Nightingale, Daniel Boone, Mrs. Eisenhower, Mrs. Nixon, Theodore Roosevelt, President Buchanan, and the Campfire Girls. Linda Capron won the prize for the best costume. Refreshments were served and square dancing completed the evening.

Nine persons from Sugar Grove were among donors at the Blood Bank in Youngsville last week.

Mrs. Allen Seamans entertained the Stilson Hill Ladies Aid for its regular meeting. The hostess served dinner at noon and the women spent the day in quilting. The president conducted devotions and a brief business session.

WOODLAND MANAGEMENT

— by —
A. H. VOGLER
District Forester

There never has been an age of wood. Man has always used wood and, no doubt, always will. Much of our woodlands no longer support the size of trees of yesterday. Consequently we must manage our second growth to produce a continuous supply of trees of value. Our Pennsylvania Tree Farms are doing just that. No matter what conditions a woodlot is in, even a partial cutting of defective and old growth helps to develop thrifty growth of the remaining trees.

It also reduces mortality brought on by competition for light, air, and soil space and gives young trees the opportunity to grow normally. Heavier cuttings where needed reduce mortality to an even greater degree. This helps to keep the woods productive. Whenever a harvest of tree crops is needed, provision should be made to assure a new crop. We must keep our woodlands free of wolf trees and those which are crooked and diseased. Such trees can be used for fuelwood or girdled. By maintaining a good stand of trees, we protect the soil, building up the litter on the forest floor to the point where continuous nutrients can be made available to the tree crop.

This primary care of the woodland practiced by the tree farmer pays off, not only in lumber, wood products and cash to himself, but also helps to maintain wood-using industries and benefits the public too, in supplying pure water, flood control, and recreation.

At present there are eight active tree farms in northwestern Pennsylvania. These are in varying stages of growth, ranging from immature to producing cash crops. Management on these Tree Farms ranges from improvement thinning to harvesting thousands of board feet of sawtimber per year. As a result, beneficial influences from managed woodlands go not only to the owner, but also to others, including wildlife. To grow better trees it is important that the same care and consideration be given the woodlands as is given to any other farm crop. The basic and primary care is protection from forest fire, followed by protection from grazing, insects and diseases. High grade products

Pleasant Township Firemen Talk Over Plans for Addition

At the semi-monthly meeting of the Pleasant Volunteer Fire Company, members voted an amendment changing the regular meeting nights from the first and third Mondays to the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. In accordance with the new ruling, the next regular session is scheduled for Tuesday, February 10.

Other business discussed included plans for the coming summer, and ordering of plans from the architect for the addition to be made to the fire building.

After adjournment of the business session, lunch was served by the committee.

Passing Barricade Warnings Result in Death of Laborers

Harrisburg—Despite signs, barricades, flagmen and other precautionary safeguards taken by the State Highway Department, to warn of maintenance projects, six employees were killed by motorists last year, E. L. Schmidt, Secretary of Highways, announced.

Another 36 were injured, some crippled for life by motorists who disregarded the warnings.

"The Department of Highways has adopted every possible safeguard for the protection of its employees," F. E. Goodhart, Safety Engineer, said. "In addition to the warning signs, greater use of flagmen has been made. These operate under a uniform system of procedure. Nevertheless, flagmen have been killed.

"We are using 20-minute flares in the lane occupied by cumbering trucks and snow plows. The trucks

Oldier From Warren Writes Interesting Letters of His Experiences at Ft. Meade, Md.

A letter received from Donald R. Kie, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kie, 108 Alexander street, Warren, who left for the army Jan. 1, '53, with "Bud" McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGuire, Warren, Pa. R. D. 1.

Jan. 31, '53.
Ft. Meade, Maryland
Dear Mom and Dad:
I am still O. K. but mighty tired every evening. We get up at 4:00 a. m. every morning but I have to be in bed by 9:00 every night. I got here. I am in Co. G/K which consists of 16 barracks buildings two floors each. There are a few more than a hundred in each building, and the buildings are all full. Our Co. is one out of seven or eight, so I can see this is a pretty big place. Our Co. will not fill one hall, so you can see they are pretty big. There are two or three mess halls on camp. I guess the motto is "Hurry up and wait," because every place we go they rush us and when we get there we usually stand for an hour or better.

My dress clothes were altered to fit me, but my fatigues or work clothes are rather short, my shirt sleeves are about two inches above my wrist, and my pantlegs will not stay in the top of my combat boots, but I do not feel bad about this, because there are others just like me. We were up this morning dressed, made our bunks, swept the barracks, walked half a mile for chow, walked back to our barracks, walked to another building took a fairly long test, and were back to our barracks before the sun came up.

Bud is sitting across from me writing home too. There were between 450 and 500 of us left Pittsburgh Tuesday night Jan. 26 for here, all but eleven had been drafted. We eleven had a sleeper car to ourselves. They are all a swell bunch of fellows, but of course there are a few bad ones.

Bud and I will leave here Tuesday for school. We haven't found a thing that we can kick about as yet. Today we took that test I mentioned before, had our pictures taken for our home town newspaper, had our blood type taken, two shots, made out a lot of papers, received our "Flying Twenty" (Our first $20.00 which goes so fast) had our dress uniform pressed, and a few other things taken care of. My army serial No. is RA1346823 but as yet I have no address.

The weather has been swell since we got here, but it was raining Wednesday morning when we arrived. They met us with a large convoy of trucks. Since then I have walked!

The sun has shone, and it has been nice and warm during the day, and cold at night. We can buy things such as toilet articles, cigarettes, candy, cookies, pop, ice cream, clothing, etc. at the PX (Post Exchange) for a lot less than we could get them at a regular store, $1.50 shoe shine kit for 95c, cigarettes $1.60 a carton or 16c a pack. My hand is getting cramped, and I have to go to the P. X. for stamps, so will close for now.

Your son,
DONALD.
P. S. Received my first G. I. hair cut today. Boy is it short?

Our Older People

Changes in human affairs often occur so gradually as to be by those who are experiencing them. As Pennsylvania's population has grown (from about three and one-half to ten and one-half million), a striking change has also occurred in the proportion of very young and very old people among our citizens. It may well be that this change is even more important than the increase in the number of our inhabitants.

In 1870, people 65 years of age or over numbered 119,000 in Pennsylvania. In 1950, they numbered 886,000, so while the total population has only tripled in that period, the number of older people has increased seven and one-half times. Those over 65 were only 3.3% of the 1870 population, but had increased to 8.4% at the time of the taking of the last Census. Meanwhile, despite the heavy birth rate following the Second World War, the number of persons ten years of age and younger had only increased from 923,000 in 1870 to 1,884,000 in 1950.

It is not too much to say that, if we were permitted to move back in time for 80 years, and to walk the streets of a town or city with which we are now familiar, we would be just as much surprised by these age changes as we would be by the lack of very tall buildings, electric lights along the streets and the absence of automobiles, for we should see many more children in proportion to the population and notably fewer older people in that world of two generations ago.

In 1950 the median age of the population was 31.3 years. This means that there were as many people over that age as there were under it. In 1900 it was 24.2 years, in 1880, 21.8 years, and in 1870, it was still lower. Eighty years ago the total number of voters in Pennsylvania was less than the total number of boys and men under voting age. Since these changes, with few exceptions, have occurred in every civilized country, it is easy to see that they may have a decisive effect on the type of manufactured products in greatest demand, on the direction of national policy, and even on the destiny of our civilization.

Some writers have, however, over-emphasized the long-term prospect of a steadily increasing age for our population. While it is probable that in Pennsylvania, for instance, the proportion of those 65 years and over will have increased still further by 1960, it is likely that the most dramatic change in that age group has already occurred. The problem of employment for older people, for the sake of their mental health and to lighten the burden of their support on the Commonwealth, is however, certain to be of increasing importance with each passing year.

WRIGHTSVILLE

Wrightsville—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee, Wanda and Louise, of Frewsburg, N. Y., were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. James Durlin and family.

Church Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Paul Kemper Wednesday evening, February 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Seimens are the parents of a son born at the Warren hospital the past week. They have one other son, Francis, age 6, who is ill at home with the mumps.

'Command Decision' Feted on Okinawa After 100th Flight

Okinawa (AP)—Crew members knew the battered old B29 Superfort "Command Decision" was coming back from her 100th mission over Red Korea—so they baked a cake for the men who kept her flying.

The cake was shared at a party celebrating: Nearly 1,000 hours in the air against the Reds... two million pounds of bombs rained on their war potential... and the ace status—rare for a B29—earned by shooting down five MIG jets.

Command Decision, listed on the books as Superfort No. 7,657, returned today from a 12-plane strike on two Communist supply centers near Sariwon.

The crew called the mission "un-eventful—the kind we'd like them all to be."

Among six ground crewmen who enjoyed the cake was A. C. John Maisel, 5 Bunting, Lane, Green Ridge, Pa.

He was with this bomb group on Oct. 27, 1951, the day Command Decision returned from the last regular daylight mission over North Korea.

Maisel recalled how he shuddered as he rushed up to the plane when it landed then.

"There were big holes punched

WANTS "PUBLICITY ATTACK" INVESTIGATION—In Washington, Rep. Clare E. Hoffman of Michigan holds a copy of his resolution asking the House to seek an official explanation of the ill-fated UN attack on Communist lines near T-Bone Hill in Korea. Hoffman is attempting to find out whether the attack was staged for "justifiable military purposes" or for the high brass observers.

in her, from the cannon shells of MIG15 fighters," he remembers. "She had been to war that day—but I was real proud when I found out the other side of the story" that Command Decision had become an ace.

More than 100 MIGs had swarmed around the daylight raiders, and gunners aboard the plane shot down four of them. Her gunners previously had destroyed one.

For 27 months since then, through flak and fighters, the battle-tested bomber has taken the Reds' fiercest attacks, in stride.

Turkey Lunches For Students at Garland Furnished by State

Garland—Local school children have been feasting on turkey dinners in their school cafeteria, several of the birds having been supplied by the state.

Word reaches here of the honor and courtesies extended John Calins of St. Petersburg, Florida. Among friends and relatives, his 10th birthday was made memorable by the dinner served in the home of his sister-in-law, Laura Quick Simmons.

Theodore Freeze is moving his family to Erie, where he has secured employment. He has been employed on the Kellogg farm.

Homar Rogers, of Pendleton, Oregon, sent a friend a clipping from a Portland paper, an account of the recent McCoy tragedy which evidently had traveled to the Pacific coast. Mr. Rogers was a former County resident having been born and raised in Pittsfield.

Several in this vicinity are having a siege of influenza.

Mrs. Ernest Storch and young son, Irwin, left by plane Wednesday for Florida to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Irwin. Her mother, who was in a serious condition when they left Garland, is still critical. She has the prayers and sincere good wishes of Garland friends that she will respond to treatment and be able to return to her home here in the spring greatly improved.

The Willing Workers of the Methodist church held a meeting at the home of the pastor, Rev. Ross, and wife in Youngsville. A good attendance enjoyed the gathering.

Teaching Methods Make Music Easier For Young to Learn

AP Newsfeature
Chicago—Music is being made easier for youngsters to learn.

A new method of teaching children to play stringed instruments is used successfully at the Holy Name School, Chicago. Children in grades one to six are first encouraged to sing, then finger the strings and play three notes with a bow. George Rushford, music teacher, introduced the method.

His system involves only a few minutes' time in teaching each child the essentials of reading and playing, a few musical notes. He says even first graders have performed a concert as a string quartet with only 15 minutes' training.

In another musical sphere, several hundred teen-age and younger musicians climb on organ benches throughout the country to play inspiration for Sunday morning church services. A survey by an instrument firm (Hammond) reveals there will be thousands of youthful church organists within five years.

Here are a few successful kids: Donna Cole, 12, of Paramount, Calif., is not only organist for the Revival Center Church, but also conducts its regular organ recital over the radio.

Little Harry Hornbeck, 8, has been playing an organ at the Portland, Ore., Englewood Christian Church for several months.

At Jasper, Ark., seven tots ranging from 10 to 16, are furnishing the music for the local Methodist church.

Kay Kincaid, 14, of San Jose, Calif., plays the electronic organ for services at St. Francis Episcopal church.

Bobby Town, now 14, of Meridian, N. Y., went all of them a score better. He decided the Meridian Presbyterian Church needed a new organ. He started a one-boy campaign to get it. He launched a series of magic shows, plays and back-yard circuses to get it. Now he is assistant to the regular church organist.

Mrs. Hattie Wike was admitted to Kane Community Hospital on Monday night of last week after suffering a fall the full length of the stairs from the second to the first floor of her home. She is recuperating nicely.

Friends will be interested to learn that Mrs. Clara Gregg is showing a slight improvement.

Ward Anderson, son of Mrs. Emil Anderson, has been admitted to Kane Community Hospital as a surgical patient.

The Valentine Carlsons, who recently had the misfortune of having their home burn, are the parents of a son born Friday at Community Hospital, Kane.

Ludlow Scouts Are Planning a Dinner

Ludlow—Boy Scouts of Troop 50 and Ludlow Cubs will have a Scout and Dad dinner in the American Legion Hall at 6.15 p. m. Monday, February 9.

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Jones, Millie and Gladys Morelli, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cox, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Johnson, Frederick Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Nelson, Doris and Emily Johnson, Clyde and Larry Giffert, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester McArthur, were in attendance at the Barbershop Concert given at the Sheffield High School for the benefit of the National Boy Scout Jamboree Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carlson, Mrs. Victor Bergquist, Marcel Bergquist, and Norma Bergquist were in attendance at the funeral service of the Rev. Earl M. Robbins, Curwensville, former pastor of the Covenant church at Ludlow. The Rev. F. A. Jacobson and the Rev. Cora Ardary, DuBois, conducted the services, which were held at the Short Funeral Chapel in DuBois Saturday at 1:30 p. m. He is survived by his wife, Irene, and daughters, Shirley and Susan, who were well known in this vicinity.

Holy Communion was observed in both Moriah Lutheran and the Mission Covenant churches Sunday morning, with many in attendance despite the bad weather. The respective pastors, Rev. Hans Pearson and Rev. Raymond Dahlberg, preached the communion meditations.

Everybody is taking a lot of satisfaction from the fact that steaks are 30c per pound less at OBLAWS right now than last year at this time. And look at hamburger... today only 3¢ per pound—last year 65¢ per pound. To put it another way, a standing rib of beef today (our best cut) costs about the same as hamburger last year at this time. Of course, pork is lower, too. And our Farm Fresh Chickens are 8c to 10c per pound less than last year. These and many other low meat prices all add up to a much better buy in meat for you this year. Come in and see for yourself.

Commies' Courtroom Tactics Fail to Impress so They Are Cutting Down on Their Noise

By JAME MARLOW
Washington (AP)—Communists' courtroom manners may not have improved but they seem a little less noisy than they used to be. After a batch has been convicted of teaching conspiracy to overthrow the government by force, there have been four trials of first and second-string Communist leaders since January, 1949. Forty-four have been convicted. The tactics of the first 11 convicted followed instructions laid down years ago. They were jailed. And, since their conviction was upheld by the Supreme Court, the result may have had a quieting or discouraging effect, on party members who went on trial later.

In the early 1930s the International Labor Defense, which former Atty. Gen. Francis Biddle later called the "legal arm of the Communist party," issued a 31-page paper bound booklet which sold at the time for 5 cents. It has become so hard to find now that it is a collector's item, selling for as much as $12. The cover shows a man in work clothes leaning over a judge's bench and holding him up by the scruff of his neck. The judge has a dagger and a blackjack tucked in his belt. This booklet—the title on the cover is "Under Arrest! Workers' Self-Defense in the Courts"—tells "workers' what to do when picked up by the police. So far as dealing with the police goes, the advice of the booklet can be summed up: 'Tell 'em nothing.' But it goes into quite a bit of detail on how to act when in court.

For example: 'Make the court your forum. Bring out the class issues at the trial. In most cases the judge and prosecutor will try to evade the class character of the case.'

And it further advises: 'If you are charged with teaching... then it is absolutely necessary for you to use the court for a clear and correct explanation of the economic and social views which you hold, of the facts of the class struggle as applied to your case.'

Eugene Dennis, one of the top 11 leaders convicted in the first trial, apparently followed the advice of the booklet even to the title. He was his own defense counsel. The other 10 had lawyers.

The trial of the 11, in Judge Harold R. Medina's Federal Court, took 39 weeks. Five lawyers in the case drew jail sentences, ranging from 30 days to six months, for contemptuous conduct toward Medina. The 11 leaders got penitentiary terms.

The Communists tried to turn the courtroom into a forum. Pro-Communists picketed outside, chanting. Heckled as probably no other judge in American history, Medina kept his temper.

He knew that if he blew up the men before him, if convicted by the jury, might win a new trial because of his conduct. So he stayed calm although several times he left the bench until the wrangling died down.

The next trial—five Communist second-string leaders and a party lawyer—was in Baltimore but was much quieter and lasted only six weeks. The six were convicted April 1, 1952.

Fourteen leading California Communists were convicted next after a trial that lasted six months in a Los Angeles court before U. S. Judge William C. Mathes. In spite of its long-drawn-out nature, the judge commended the defense counsel for "care and quality of your work in this case." The jury gave its verdict Aug. 5, 1952.

On Jan. 21, 1953, in U. S. Judge Edward J. Dimock's court in New York, 131 more second-string party

Announce Plans For Annual Chicken Of Tomorrow Contest

Harrisburg—Pennsylvania farm boys and girls once more will have opportunity to compete in the annual Chicken of Tomorrow contest to be conducted this spring by the Pennsylvania State Poultry Federation.

Future Farmers, 4-H Club members and other rural young people under 20 years of age are invited to participate in the 1953 junior contest. They may enter broiler type chicks that must be hatched between Monday, March 2 and Friday, March 6. This will allow an 11½-week growing period before judging takes place on May 23 for selection of regional winners.

State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst declares Pennsylvania is one of the nation's top ranking poultry states and its broiler industry has been expanding steadily. Federation sponsorship of Chicken of Tomorrow contests for the past eight years has contributed much to growth of the entire poultry industry.

For the 1953 junior division there are four regional contests, each with a receiving center for dressing and judging the birds. These will be at Doylestown for the eastern region, Coatesville for the east central region, Altoona for the west central region and Butler for the western region. Prizes will be awarded in each region and the five best entries in each will be sent to a central point for judging and selection of statewide winners on May 23.

According to contest rules, birds may be of any good meat or dual purpose breed. Various cross breeds are eligible provided the same cross can be reproduced. Out leaders were found guilty by a jury. Although this one lasted 8½ months Dimock called it "just a run of the mill" case.

Nevertheless, the line laid down in the booklet on what "workers" on trial should say, appears faithfully in what one Communist after another among the convicted 44 said during his trial or at the time of sentencing.

of an entry of 100 straight run chicks or 50 cockerels, 15 cockerels are to be sent for judging provided the liveweight of the 15 birds is 50 pounds or more when received at the dressing plant.

Lawrence Kegeeris, Palmyra, is chairman of the 1953 Chicken of Tomorrow contest. Committee members include Dr. E. I. Robertson, Carol O. Doasin, E. J. Lawless, Jr., Clarence Manbeck, L. Howard Martin, V. A. Martin, A. J. G. Maw, Thomas Moncrief, Henry Moon, L. D. Odhner, Dr. P. H. Seitz and K. M. Souders.

CONGRESS WELCOMES NEW PRESIDENT—In Washington, President Dwight Eisenhower, arrow, pauses at the rostrum of the House Gallery to receive an ovation before delivering his State of the Union message to a joint session of Congress.

Fifteen From The Vicinity of Garland Visit Bloodmobile

Garland—Local residents were well represented at the Blood Bank at Youngsville last week, 15 responding as donors.

Peter Leofsky has enrolled for a four-year course in the Polish College at Cambridge Springs, starting with the new semester. Peter was recently discharged from army duty after more than three years' service.

Best wishes are extended the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gannoe. The bride, formerly Phyllis Price, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Price and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Price of Garland, where she resided for several years.

Charles Price was laid to rest in Garland Presbyterian Cemetery Saturday following services in Tionesta. The deceased was the eldest son of the late George and Etta Price born and raised in Garland. He is survived by one daughter, Coral Babb, at whose home he died at Hastings, Forest county; one son, John, Oil City; two brothers, Merle of Oil City and Claude of Garland; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Ted Smith left Friday to take up his studies at Allegheny College having spent a few days here with his parents between semesters.

Wave N. Carlson celebrated a birthday on groundhog day. Her friends extend best wishes.

Rev. Ross was in Garland Thursday and attended the entertainment held in the Community center that evening. He brought his own equipment Friday evening and put on a very interesting picture showing to an appreciative audience who extend their sincere thanks.

Warren Davis is assisting Eugene Clancy at the Garland Inn.

Sympathy is extended the community of Irvine in the passing of Miss Theresa Nelson. She is going to be missed by a large circle of friends in the county. The Presbyterian church at Irvine will long feel the loss of one of its most loyal Christian personalities.

SCARE MAIL—Postal employees at Bellaire, Ohio, had the scare of a lifetime when 500 snakes like the one above, exhibited by Eileen Wenzel, fell out of a parcel post package. Snakes, however, are no novelty to Eileen, who doesn't mind them a bit when they're made of rubber. The shipment of vulcanized reptiles was addressed to the novelty shop where she works.

It's fun to fool your husband!

Toll Free Structure Great Assistance to Farm Show Visitors

Harrisburg—Farm show visitors to Harrisburg from the area west of the Susquehanna discovered something new had been added since the 1952 show—the toll free M. Harvey Taylor bridge.

Traffic counts during Farm Show week by the planning engineers of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways revealed that 55 1/2 per cent of vehicles that crossed the river used the new bridge.

Of the remainder, 36 1/2 per cent crossed on the Market Street toll bridge with a mere eight percent utilizing the Walnut Street toll bridge.

During Farm Show week from January 12 to January 18, inclusive, the three Harrisburg bridges carried a total of 386,500 vehicles.

Not only Farm Show visitors but residents in the immediate area west of Harrisburg noted the absence of traffic jams which formerly tied up traffic for an hour and longer, particularly in the Lemoyne bottleneck at the west end of the Market Street toll bridge.

Since the 1952 Farm Show the toll free bridge has been added to the river crossings at Harrisburg along with the greatly widened and improved approaches leading from TR. 11 at 32nd and Market Streets, Camp Hill.

These improvements have been reflected in the smoother flow of Farm Show traffic this year in comparison with former years.

During Farm Show week a daily average of more than 19,000 vehicles crossed the Market Street bridge. Its biggest day was Thursday, January 15, with 22,293 vehicles counted. The Walnut Street bridge carried a daily average of 4100 vehicles with Wednesday, January 14, as biggest day with 4,987 vehicles.

The M. Harvey Taylor bridge daily average was 29,000 with a peak of 31,990 vehicles on its biggest day, Monday, January 12.

The 29,000-daily Farm Show average on the M. Harvey Taylor bridge compares with the most recent prior traffic count of 21,753 last Fall.

The December average on the Market Street bridge was 18,500 and on the Walnut Street bridge 3,900.

Proper bathroom cleaning should include the use of a disinfectant to guard against germ dangers. Clorox has germ-killing power, it disinfects. In addition, it deodorizes and removes stains.

Committee Chairmanships In Congress Demonstrate Odd Working of Seniority System

Washington (AP)—The committee chairmanships held by Pennsylvanians in Congress demonstrate the strange way the congressional seniority system can work.

What counts on any committee is how long you have been on that committee; not how long you have been in Congress.

For example, Rep. Samuel K. McConnell Jr., of Wynnewood is beginning his sixth term and is chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee.

But Rep. Richard M. Simpson of Huntingdon, who is beginning his ninth term and is dean of Pennsylvania Republicans, ranks third among GOP members of the House Ways and Means Committee.

And Rep. Ivor D. Fenton of Mahanoy City is in his eighth term but ranks only seventh among Republicans on the House Appropriations committee.

Here are some other examples: Rep. Francis E. Walter of Easton is starting his 11th term. He is dean of all Pennsylvania members of Congress—House and Senate. But he is the No. 2 Democrat on the House Judiciary Committee. Only in this congress did he become the top Democrat on the House un-American Activities Committee.

But Sen. Edward Martin, who is beginning only his seventh year—comparable to a House member beginning a fourth term—is chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee and of the Senate Patronage Committee.

The chairmanships of subcommittees work in equally strange ways. Fenton is on the Appropriation subcommittee of Interior Department funds. The chairman of the subcommittee is Rep. Ben F. Hense of Iowa, who has been in congress no longer than Fenton but who ranks four steps higher on the full appropriation committee.

Rep. Louis E. Graham of Beaver, on the other hand, is also an eight-term like Fenton. But he is the No. 2 Republican on the House Judiciary Committee and will be chairman of the Judiciary Committee's subcommittee on Migration and Naturalization.

The House Ways and Means Committee has no regular subcommittee and so Simpson, for example, will hold no chairmanship unless he's named to head a special group.

There are several explanations for these seeming paradoxes:

1. Some committees have more members than others, especially Appropriations and Ways and Means. Therefore, it takes longer to climb the seniority ladder.

2. Deaths, elections and defeats and retirements affect seniority standings.

3. Members resign from some committees when they have an opportunity to get on other committees they consider more important.

Hamilton Township Has Reorganization

Ludlow—Hamilton township supervisors, holding their annual reorganization meeting, chose as officers George R. Anderson, president; Adolph F. Johnson, secretary-treasurer; Harry G. Erickson, member at large; and Velgot Mortenson, roadmaster.

Following considerable discussion, it was decided to maintain the present nine mills tax rate for 1953, this figure having been the same for the past several years.

Since the Sheffield Fire Company has responded to calls in Hamilton township on several recent occasions, always without remuneration, the board voted to contribute $100 to the organization, with a letter of gratitude for its fine cooperation.

Under the present arrangement the Kane Fire Company is to be called in case of fire in Ludlow, except on those occasions when additional help is needed. The township pays 1/4 of a mill on assessed valuation of the town, or about $250 annually for this protection.

The supervisors were pleased to report they were recently informed the balance of the Bliss Hill road will be hard-surfaced and guarded this summer through the Forestry Department, using bureau of public roads funds.

Rowswell Helps Sports Boosters Honor Warren Lettermen

Capacity Crowd Jams Marconi Outing Club for Seventh Annual Event; Program Is Excellent

Albert Kennedy Rowswell — the noted "Rosey" of the Pittsburgh Pirates—told a big audience, Wednesday night, how he was thrown out of high school on the second day of his second year, and then "made them pay to hear me" when he was called back home, many years later, to give the commencement address in the little Western Pennsylvania town where the earlier incident had occurred.

As speaker at the seventh annual banquet of the Warren Sports Boosters' Association to honor Warren High School lettermen, Rowswell practically left his seat at the speakers' table and sat down in a huddle with the boys themselves. He talked about this and about that in language the boys understood, and did they like him? A glance at their rapt countenances was the answer, and the oldsters also went all out in their enjoyment of the little man heard year after year at the big mite, among them a group of Warren Pirate fans "who have lived and died listening to Rosey."

Dropping out of his line from America, Rowswell suddenly dipped into baseball as quickly as the unheralded arrival of a hurricane, admitted the Pirates were not only on the last rung of the ladder last season, but "even a little below the last rung." Then he breezed through baseball experiences dating back a quarter of a century, spicing the events with a wry humor which had everyone in the aisles. Always a good speaker, Rowswell was at his best and the lines formed not only on the left but on the right and in the middle as scores of programs were presented for his autograph.

The 250 guests found Marconi Outing Club turned into a beautiful setting for last night's affair. J. Russell Hansen, always in charge of table decorations, had done himself proud, ably assisted by Rudolph Choun of Flowerland at North Warren. The tables were centered with colorful streamers, green ferns, glowing tapers, and there were huge baskets of early Spring flowers which in themselves promised that baseball is not far away. Mr. Hansen's decorative plan and Mr. Choun's flower plan were commented on all. The large floral arrangement on the speakers' table was sent to P. W. M. Pressel, former principal and superintendent of schools.

William E. Rice, president of the Sports Boosters, was in rare form as he introduced Mr. Rowswell for the seventh time in the last quarter century. He also presented Harry F. Schmidt, chairman of the banquet committee, and his assistants, Creed Erickson, Dr. Charles Reese, Atty. Myer Korn-ing staff, Supt. Carl Whipple, Principal Floyd Bathurst and Herbert Harris, Gerald M. Newton, Robert R. Young and Charles Beck. It was regretted that Harry A. Summers, always cooperative in helping committees with these affairs, could not attend.

Dr. F. G. Haines, who has voluntarily served the athletes as their physician for almost a half century, was seated with the coaching staff, and received a big hand when he was introduced.

Guests of Honor

SPORTS BOOSTERS TO MEET ON MARCH 11TH
President Reed announced last night that the Warren Sports Boosters will hold their annual meeting on March 11th at which time 1953 officers will be elected.

Ray Reed, Sr., Creed Erickson, Don McComas and Myer Kornreich make up the nominating committee.

J. B. Leidig, director of athletics and retired football coach, and Fred Bell, the new coach, were presented with beautifully framed art pieces, the work of Myron Munson. Mr. Leidig was given a reproduction of the window tribute accorded him last October in honor of his 40 years' service as coach as well as a copy of the personal tribute with which he was honored. Mr. Bell was given a reproduction of the window display which welcomed him to Warren and the personal tribute accorded him.

During the serving of the banquet by the Marconi Club staff, a marvelous dinner prepared by the Lewis Caterers, dinner music was provided by the Girls' Ensemble of the Warren High school orchestra. The program included song specialties by young Bill Henry of the Warren Boys' Choir, whose rendition, in true Johnny Ray style, of "The Little White Cloud that Cried," brought down the house. His accompanist was Miss Adelaide Swanson. The Maestros of Youngsville, a young Barbershop quartet composed of Don Kirk, Dick Nelson, Frank Danuski and Dave Dunkle, pleased immensely with three numbers, including "Little Brown Jug" and "Climbin' Up the Mountain, Chillin'." A specialty act by Jack Seib and Gerry Conover, of Erie, gave the audience a chance to laugh unendingly. The facial contortions and gesticulations of these two, singing to records by music movement only, amazed the audience.

The invocation was offered by Robert R. Young, assistant WHS principal, and the benediction was given by Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church.

Charles' Win Over Harrison Gives Him Comeback Strength

Detroit (AP) — Ezzard Charles and the fans agree today: The former heavyweight champion's sixth straight comeback victory was his most impressive.

Since losing the title to Jersey Joe Walcott, Charles had plodded past Bernie Reynolds, Cesar Brion, Frankie Buford, Jimmy Bivins and Wes Bascom—none of them world-beaters in so-so fashion.

Then came young Tommy Harrison last night, and being a ranking light-heavy, he was supposed to give Charles his toughest test of all.

But after eight rounds of pummeling, Harrison stumbled back to his stool for a quick freshening-up. His manager, George Parassius, took one look at Tommy and called it quits. So it went into the record as a ninth-round TKO under Michigan rules.

It was Charles' first appearance in Detroit since he successfully defended his title against Walcott nearly two years ago. But the 4,026 fans at Olympia Stadium and a nationwide television audience agreed he looked perhaps the best since then.

New Process Wins Three From Phalanx

New Process volleyball players continued to show their superiority on the "Y" floor yesterday afternoon by defeating the Phalanx, 2-1. Scoring went 15-8, 15-8 and 15-17.

Playing with the Process were Dan Lucia, Bill Hunt, Blaine Jones and Dick Smith, while the Phalanx had Rev. Robert Stein, Jack Brennan, Fran Morris and Vic Gustafson.

Through The Wind Tunnel

The man who labeled the Westminster basketball team "The Towering Titans" checked out on sabbatical leave yesterday, a leave from which he will not return, even to his honorary post as "Mr. Available" in Pitt athletics.

Prof. Robert K. Graham, head of the Department of Journalism and professor of English at Pitt, died in Polyclinic Hospital, New York, after a short illness. Good and loyal friend, talented instructor, newspaperman supreme, and, in his quiet way, one of America's greatest humorists. He used to tell his students at Westminster: "The 'X' in my name is for Xavier, not to mark the spot you're on!"

Said Myron Cope in the sports section of this morning's Post-Gazette: "Mr. Available is gone from the behind-the-scenes sports moves of the University of Pittsburgh."

"Robert K. Graham, head of the school's journalism department, who died unexpectedly in New York yesterday, had been secretary of the Athletic Commission since its inception in 1948, and had ridden out the many storms set off by the group before it finally calmed Pitt's athletic situation."

Many a young business man of today—the majority of them in northwestern Pennsylvania—will feel genuine grief when he learns of Professor Bob's death. Prof. Graham and his devoted wife, Eleanor, saw to it that many and many a college student at Westminster and at Pitt was enabled to complete his education. Genuine folk, generous, kindly, hospitable and Godly, this couple walked hand in hand in doing good wherever they could find it to do. Always taken for granted and always "Mr. Available," R. K. walked his own quiet way until death claimed him; now look at the columns he drew in Pittsburgh papers today!

From 1928 to 1935, while teaching English at Westminster, he coached track and cross-country teams but had so many other duties that his work at practice sessions frequently consisted of tacking notices on the dressing room bulletin board reading: "Jones, run three miles today," or "Smith, run five miles."

The description, "Towering Titans," which has stuck through the years, occurred to him while he was publicity man and assistant athletic director in the early '30's, a time of large and triumphant floor teams there.

As a student weighing little more than 100 pounds, Graham reported for the Colgate cross country team in 1921 and had to argue vehemently with the coach that he would not be carried away by the wind. He would up as captain in his senior year.

During World War II, Graham served as a Navy lieutenant and lieutenant commander. It was after his return to Pitt, where he had taught since 1935, that he was elevated to a full professorship. He was national president of Phi Delta Epsilon, national journalism fraternity. His classes loved him, his inveterate punning and his wry humor. Many of his journalism students have gone on to successful careers in newspaper, advertising, radio and related fields. At the time of his death he was in New York to obtain talent for the Pitt TV workshop planned for next summer.

While it was not time for Bob Graham to die, and while he didn't want to die, chances are, if he was able to do so, he made some wise crack about it along toward the end.

White Sox Will Pay Fain Highest Salary

Chicago (AP) — Ferris Fain, two-year American League batting champion, today became perhaps the highest paid player ever signed by the Chicago White Sox, reportedly coming to "happy" terms for more than $30,000.

Recently acquired first sacker Fain, who earned a reported $28,500 last season with the Philadelphia Athletics, needed just a two-minute phone conversation with Sox General Manager Frank Lane to agree on a 1953 contract.

High School Wrestlers Hope For Revenge Over Titusville Tonight

At least one change and possibly two will appear in the Warren High wrestling lineup tonight, when the Dragons play host to a strong Titusville High squad on the Beatty Junior High mats. The first main bout will start at 7:30.

Titusville won the first match there, 25-24.

Head Coach Homer Barr stated last night that Bob Landers would be back in the 120-pound division again, after standing back for Bob Miller in two meets, and that Jennings, a freshman, may have to be used at 185 in place of Walt Pittman. Pittman is suffering an injury and may not be set for action.

Lou Cummings will be the only Dragon matman defending a clean slate of five victories tonight and is listed to perform at either 75 or 103 pounds. Wayne Miller will have the opposite berth.

Other grapplers are Bob Smith, Don Brown, Frank Smith, Glenn Cook, Chuck Eaton, Steve Olson and Don Cummings.

The probable lineup:

95-pound class—L. Cummings vs. T. Brown.

103-pound—W. Miller vs. Whitman.

112-pound—R. Smith vs. L. Wagner.

120-pound—R. Landers vs. R. Swanson.

127-pound—D. Brown vs. J. Brown.

133-pound—F. Smith vs. D. Wakefield.

138-pound—G. Cook vs. N. Kerr.

145-pound—C. Eaton vs. K. Loker.

154-pound—S. Olson vs. R. McGee.

165-pound—D. Cummings vs. H. Knapp.

185-pound—W. Pittman or Jennings vs. J. Starr.

Carl Olson Not To Enter Ring Tourney

Boston (AP)—The scramble for Sugar Ray Robinson's vacated middleweight title took on the aspects of a soap opera today with Carl (Bobo) Olson's withdrawal from an elimination tournament designed to find a new champion.

The Hawaiian boxer is the No. 1 American contender, but last night he said he wants no part of the tournament—arranged by the powerful National Boxing Association and the New York State Athletic Commission.

Olson meets 21-year-old Norman Hayes of Boston Saturday night in a nationally televised (ABC) 9 p. m. (EST) 10-rounder in Boston Garden. New England will be blacked out of the audience.

No Good Offer For Kiner, Claims Rickey

Pittsburgh (AP)—Branch Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, home after several days of negotiating to trade home run slugger Ralph Kiner, says he hasn't received a satisfactory offer.

Rickey who held talks with the Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Boston Braves, said:

"I am after playing strength. The clubs which would like to obtain Kiner have only added money to their propositions. I have not given up on the idea of a trade at all but right now I can only sit back and await further developments from the other parties."

Youngsville Freshmen Defeat Sugar Grove

Youngsville Fresh beat Sugar Grove Junior High, 26 to 16, at Sugar Grove yesterday afternoon to extend its league leading record to four wins and one loss.

LeTrent was top man for Youngsville with 19 points, while Reynolds headed the Grovers' lineup with six.

This Friday the Youngsville teams comes to Warren and will then have a league encounter on next Wednesday with Tidoute.

Yankees Have Million to Hand Out for Players This Year And the Boys Are $ Crazy

New York (AP)—The New York Yankees have close to a million dollars they're ready to ladle out in salaries—the largest payroll pot in baseball history—but no club is having more trouble getting diamond employees under contract.

The players' theme song seems to be: "No, gimme more."

"You don't realize what a problem it is to sign up a ball club that has won four straight world championships," said George Weiss, general manager of the Yankees empire and the man with the chronic winter headache.

"I don't think there's an organized holdout campaign or anything like that. Each of these fellows figures he was greatly instrumental in our success and he wants his reward on the pay check."

The Yankees have signed only two of their regulars for the 1953 season while most other clubs are announcing signings in clusters. The Brooklyn Dodgers, the Yankees' victims in the last World Series, for instance, have signed all of their players.

The two regulars who have come to terms are catcher Yogi Berra, who autographed a contract for a reported $40,000, a $5,000 raise, and infielder Gil McDougald, who signed for what's believed to be around $20,000.

Alie Big Chief Reynolds, who has had two tremendous years with the world champions, failed to get any satisfaction in his second conference with Roy Hamer, assistant general manager, who does the Yankee negotiating.

The Oklahoma City right-hander, who had a 20-8 record last season and 17-8 the year before, is said to be demanding at least a $7,000 raise over the $35,000 he collected in 1952. That would be approximately the salary paid Vic Raschi, who also is asking a hike for his 16 pitching victories last season.

The Yankees must come to terms with lefty Ed Lopat, a reliable veteran; Whitey Ford, who's returned from the service; Bob Kuzava, Tom Morgan and others. Also yet to be dealt with across the bargaining table are young Mickey Mantle, the 1952 World Series hero, and his outfield mates, Hank Bauer and Gene Woodling; big John Mize, the slugging first baseman; infielders Phil Rizzuto, Billy Martin and others.

Reports have the 40-year-old Mize balking at a 20 per cent slash in salary. He is insisting on a carbon copy of his last season's contract, which called for $20,000.

"I can't, for obvious reasons, say what our payroll will be this year," said Weiss. "But it's tremendous. You can safely say it's the largest we've ever had."

A few years ago a congressional committee revealed the Yankees' payroll as $600,000. It's known the figure has grown substantially every year since, despite the departure of $90,000-a-year Joe DiMaggio.

Manager Casey Stengel signed a contract before he left for California in the fall. He hinted his salary was "close to $100,000."

IT'S JUST NATURAL

Penn. State's Olie Sax, rookie sensation of the 1952 indoor track campaign, comes by his speed honestly. His father, Olie Sr., of Kearny, N. J., stole 61 bases for Scranton of the New York-Penn baseball league during the 1927 campaign.

U. S. SHIPS FOR JAPAN—Members of Japan's Coastal Security Force are marching aboard patrol frigates transferred to that country in a recent ceremony at Yokosuka's U. S. Naval Station. Six frigates and several landing ships were taken over by the Japanese, under conditions of Public Law 407 of the 82nd Congress, to be used for "patrol purposes."

SNOW LESSON—The biology teacher of a class in an American-sector elementary school in Berlin is helping students make repairs on a snowy saurian they constructed on the school grounds as part of a lesson. Several of the animals under study were reconstructed in similar frigid models of snow, thereby making the lessons more interesting than they would be indoors. And considerably colder, too.

DOWN IT WENT—A section of a three-span bridge lies collapsed over the Wabash River, following the derailment of 11 cars of a 34-car freight train at Terre Haute, Ind. No one was injured in the wreck, in which the damage was estimated at approximately $250,000, but it's obvious that Lady Luck was along for the ride when this happened.

After careening across the road, the vehicle went through a guard rail and down the embankment. No one was killed, but six were hospitalized.

CORRECT WEAR—A dapper young man in New York feeds the pigeons in very proper attire. He is wearing a sport coat with monogram pocket tab. The coat is made of rayon and acetate and is spot resistant, water repellent and ideal for wearing with contrasting lightweight slacks.

HISTORIC SLANT—Houses and shops which lean forward on an ancient street in York, England, have attracted visitors for hundreds of years. Located in the section known as The Shambles, a one-time slaughterhouse center, the street is now mostly occupied by butchers. It is mentioned in the Domesday Book, one of the very first chronicles of recorded history, and efforts are being made to preserve the street's historic character.

INDIA'S CARDINAL—Dressed in his full robes, train and white ermine cape in Rome, is Valeriano Cardinal Gracias, Archbishop of Bombay and first Indian prelate to become a prince of the Roman Catholic Church. The 52-year-old Cardinal Gracias, who was born in Karachi, Pakistan, posed for this official portrait photo in The Eternal City.

READY FOR THE CAMERA—Newly-divorced, ex-Princess Aly Kahn, better known to movie fans as Rita Hayworth, is being made up in a Hollywood studio by make-up man Bob Schiffer. Rita is playing the role of "Salome" in her new picture, and since Salome was a princess of Biblical fame, Rita will be in her element and should be right at home in the part.

THAT'S MY POP!—Tiny cowgirl Susan Ames, of Las Vegas, Nev., may be saying that to the wild white burro who's drinking out of her bottle. After a taste of this, the desert critter decided to stay in town and live off the soft heart and soft drinks of the children in the area.

COME WHAT MAY—Snow means the same thing to youngsters all over the world, and these tots in Japan's Akita province are all set for a ride on a wooden sled. The tyke on the left has been well bundled up by his mother. His appearance may be a bit bulky, but he's cold-proof, thanks to straw snowshoes and a voluminous pair of pants big enough for both children.

Survey Reveals Retail Beef Prices Continue Their Decline

By The Associated Press
Retail beef prices continued their week-long decline in many stores this week with reductions ranging from 4 to as much as 10 cents a pound. Steaks, roasts, ground beef and other items were selling in some places at lower prices than those in effect when the Korean War broke out in June, 1950. However, several large chains which had announced sharp cuts last week held their beef prices unchanged this week and reported signs at the wholesale level that the downturn was leveling off. Other meat and poultry prices, after edging lower recently under competitive pressure from declining beef, were narrowly irregular. Legs of lamb and pork loins were down a few cents a pound here and there but these reductions appeared to be mostly the result of temporary special pricing to lure customers with a variety of week-end shopping features. Some pork items and frying chickens worked a little higher. Eggs were down 1 to 4 cents a dozen in most markets but dealers said a firmer trend at wholesale probably foreshadowed a retail advance by the end of the week. Price movements in fresh fruits and vegetables were small. Snap beans, broccoli, endive, peas, peppers and potatoes were mostly a little lower, while celery, cucumbers, lettuce, spinach, and best tomatoes averaged higher. Oranges, grapes and pears cost slightly more in many stores, lemons and grapefruit a little less than last week. The Agriculture Department stressed cabbage and cheese as most plentiful foods for thrifty buying this week.

Fish pay no attention to the weather. Whether the barometer is up or down has nothing to do with how many fish you will catch.
